CSU The California State University

DO YOU SEE YOURSELF AT THE CSU? WE DO.

CSU The California State University

TRANSFER SUCCESS PATHWAY
DUAL ADMISSION TO THE CSU

A SEAMLESS PATH TO YOUR CHOSEN CSU

With the Transfer Success Pathway program, you can take the first steps toward earning your four-year degree while you're enrolled at a community college. If you're entering a California Community College for the first time, the Transfer Success Pathway program guarantees you admission to a CSU so you can keep moving ahead.

As a Transfer Success Pathway student, you'll have access to personalized support as you make the transition from community college to a CSU within three years. You can receive pre-admission advising to help select classes and receive invitations to events at your chosen university.

In short, you'll have access to more guidance and help to ensure all your hard work at your community college transfers to the CSU.

"Going to community college and working two jobs was a lot, but I ended up getting through it and transferring to Dominguez Hills. My advisor has supported me a lot; now I'm on the path of applying to grad school."– Gabriel Ramirez, B.S., Sociology, CSU Dominguez Hills

TAKE THE FIRST STEP

Find out if you're eligible for the Transfer Success Pathway program. Eligible students can enter into an agreement with one university of their choice. This agreement indicates that you intend to transfer from community college to this CSU within three years.

YOU MAY BE ELIGIBLE IF:

• You're a recent high school graduate or you earned a GED and you haven't earned any college credit since completing high school.

• You're a first-time freshman entering a California Community College and were not eligible to attend the California State University when you graduated from high school.

• You're a first-time freshman who was eligible to attend the CSU, but you didn't do so because of personal or financial reasons.

• You were admitted to a CSU campus, but the campus wasn't your first choice.

YOUR TRANSFER SUCCESS PATHWAY

01 CREATE AN ACCOUNT ON THE CSU TRANSFER PLANNER.
The CSU Transfer Planner portal makes it easy to check your eligibility. You can also explore CSU campuses and degree programs, finalize your agreement with one of our 23 universities and track coursework at your community college. If you've applied to the CSU in the past through Cal State Apply, you have a CAS ID, which you can link to your CSU Transfer Planner account.

02 FIND YOUR RIGHT FIT.
Now you're ready to look for the place and the program that's best for you: Explore any or all of the CSU's 23 member universities (calstate.edu/find-your-csu) and more than 4,000 degree programs (calstate.edu/degrees) to find the right fit.

Once you've chosen a university and a major, be sure to review the degree program transfer requirements, too; you'll find these in the CSU Transfer Planner. For each program, you'll see requirements for overall grade point average (GPA) and for the GPA in your major (this is your "transferable GPA"), as well as the minimum grade required for prerequisite courses and any other requirements.

03 SIGN AN AGREEMENT WITH YOUR CHOSEN CSU.
Now you're ready to enroll in the Transfer Success Pathway program through the CSU Transfer Planner. Choose a start date and sign one agreement with the university you selected. As a Transfer Success Pathway student, you're guaranteed admission to your chosen university for a future term! (You can only have one agreement, though you are able to cancel the agreement through the CSU Transfer Planner if your plans change.)

04 ACCESS CSU SERVICES.
In addition to the services you receive from your community college, as a student in the Transfer Success Pathway program you can get support and answers to your questions—including pre-admission advising—through your CSU.

Explore calstate.edu/student-services to learn more about what's available to you.
