

WOMEN'S FIRE CAMP

Allan Hancock College Public Safety Training Center
1 Hancock Drive, Lompoc CA 93436

MAY 30, 2026 | 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.

The Allan Hancock College Fire Technology program invites women and girls between the ages of 15-25 to attend the Women's Fire Camp event. This is a one day challenging and rewarding opportunity to be exposed to the fire service career. The camp aims to develop confidence and character through exciting team-building exercises and hands-on training. Camp participants will experience:

Fire Service Based Fitness
Ground Ladders & Aerials

Hose Handling
Search and Rescue

Forcible Entry & Tools
Rope Rescue

ATTIRE: Sweatpants, athletic shoes, t-shirt (Camp T-Shirt provided @ check-in), and hair pulled back or in a bun.

LOGISTICS: Water, snacks, and lunch will be provided

JOB FAIR: The camp will conclude with a job fair sponsored by local area fire departments.

REGISTER: Register to attend by visiting the following link hancockcollege.edu/pathways/public-services/wfc.php or use the QR code. Applications can be dropped off at the AHC PSTC front office (bldg. 5) or emailed to tiffany.alexander1@hancockcollege.edu.

www.hancockcollege.edu

